

Cambridge School, Noida celebrated its annual day recently. The chief guest for the event was Dr Mukesh Chaturvedi, Professor & Dean, School of Business Studies, Sharda University, Greater Noida. The programme commenced with the lighting of the lamp by the chief guest amidst chanting of shlokas, followed by an inaugural song by the school choir. School principal Dipannita Mondal presented the annual report highlighting the school's achievements during the academic session 2017-18. The highlight of the evening was the dance drama 'In Pursuit of Happiness', a dance drama which depicted the contrast between the life of a city child and a child from the countryside. This play was followed by the prize distribution where the meritorious students were awarded prizes for excellence in academics and co-curricular activities. The programme was also attended by Dr Kalyani Roy, secretary, Society for Advanced Education and school manager and other members of the school management committee, principals from the sister schools and parents. School head boy Harshpreet gave the vote of thanks.

Cambridge School, Noida

Aster Public School, Greater Noida West

Aster Public School, Greater Noida West organised an inter-house volleyball tournament in the school premises for the senior wing boys. The enthusiasm of all the players was quite contagious during the practice sessions and matches. All the four houses played with true sportsman spirit. Semi finals were played between Tagore House vs Gandhi House and Shastri House vs Nehru House. Gandhi and Shastri House qualified for the finals. Gandhi house trounced Shastri house by 2-0 to emerge victorious. School principal congratulated the winners and the runners-up and said, "Life is full of failures and success. When we play a game too, we may either win or lose. Sportsman spirit is the spirit of accepting one's success with humility."

Mayoor School, Noida

Mayoor School, Noida held its prize distribution and investiture ceremony. The event was graced by chief guest Lt. Gen. R.C. Chadha PVSM, AVSM, VSM (retd), members of the management and proud parents who attended the ceremony with their heads held high. School principal Alka Awasthi applauded the zeal and perseverance of the scholars. The six consecutive years' achievers in academics were conferred with gold medals, three years scholars with scholar and honours blazers to appreciate their commitment and to motivate them to aim for higher goals. The new student council was inducted in the exciting ceremony. The badges were given and an oath was administered by the chief guest. The event was interspersed with cultural programmes. An enchanting musical rendition set the stage going followed by a group song and classical fusion dance. Children sensitised the need to conserve Mother Earth through Pantomime- a mime. The head girl, head boy and president student council shared their future plans for school and promised to deliver on all the responsibilities bestowed on them. Vice principal gave the vote of thanks.

Sapphire International School, Noida

Sapphire International School, Noida held its investiture ceremony recently. The school inducted its student council to shoulder their responsibilities as the head boy, head girl, sports captains and prefects. School principal Dr Snigdha Sachdeva made the newly elected cabinet, pledge to dispense their duties to the best of their abilities epitomizing trust, hard work and sincerity. School chairperson Jeevan Kumar Jain pinned up the badges, authenticating the school motto, 'Every Child is a Leader.'