HEAD OF SCHOOL'S

MESSAGE

Reimagining Education with an Entrepreneurial Spirit

I am on a mission to reimagine how education is perceived and delivered in India — transforming it from a system of instruction into a culture of innovation.

At Sapphire International School, we believe learning must go beyond textbooks and exams to nurture creators, problem-solvers, and leaders. Our vision is to build an ecosystem where curiosity sparks innovation, creativity drives impact, and character anchors success.

Like any strong enterprise, a great school thrives on purpose and agility. We are shaping an environment where students take initiative, embrace failure, and turn ideas into action — developing the entrepreneurial mindset essential for tomorrow's changemakers.

By blending technology, design thinking, and real-world problem-solving, we prepare learners not just to adapt to the future but to build it. Our aim is to nurture empathetic innovators — confident, ethical, and resilient individuals who create value for others.

Every initiative at Sapphire cultivates ownership, creativity, and reflection, empowering students to shape possibilities rather than follow them. As we move forward, our focus remains on fostering a community that celebrates curiosity, champions innovation, and upholds integrity.

Warm Regards,
Saurabh Sehgal

VICE PRINCIPAL'S

MESSAGE

As we bid farewell to the dynamic month of October, I feel immense pride in reflecting on the vibrant spirit that echoed through the halls of Sapphire International School. October was a month of growth, discovery, and renewed purpose—a beautiful blend of learning, leadership, and compassion that truly reflects our school's ethos.

From thought-provoking assemblies and interactive classroom experiences to meaningful initiatives that nurtured both minds and hearts, October brought out the best in our learners. It was inspiring to see students step up with confidence, collaborate with empathy, and engage deeply in both academic and co-curricular pursuits.

Our Scholar's Circle continued to spark curiosity and dialogue, while hands-on projects and outdoor experiences encouraged students to connect learning with the world around them. Whether through creative expression or acts of social responsibility, our students demonstrated what it means to be thoughtful, informed, and engaged individuals.

HEAD GIRL'S VOICE

Ms. Aadya Mishra

Fourteen years ago, a little girl walked through the gates of Sapphire International School—curious, shy, and full of dreams. Today, that same girl proudly wears the badge of Head Girl, leading the very place that nurtured her.

Sapphire has been much more than a school to me—it's been my second home, a place where I have learned, grown, stumbled, and risen again. From my very first annual day to my first leadership role, every experience here has shaped me into who I am today.

Becoming the Head Girl is not just a title—it's an honour and a responsibility, a way of giving back to the institution that has given me so much. Every corridor holds memories, every corner tells a story, and every teacher and friend has played a part in this beautiful journey.

To my juniors, remember—leadership isn't about perfection, it's about showing up with kindness, courage, and confidence. Believe in yourself; you're capable of more than you think.

To my parents, thank you for your endless love and faith in me.

And to Sapphire International School—thank you for being my world for fourteen unforgettable years. I carry your legacy with pride, gratitude, and a promise to always make you proud.

With love,

Aadya Mishra

HEAD BOY'S VOICE

Mr. Om Mishra

Being the Head Boy of Sapphire International School has been a journey of growth and learning. It taught me that leadership isn't about authority, but about responsibility, teamwork, and service. Every success has been a collective effort of students, teachers, and the school management striving to make Sapphire better each day.

As a commerce student, I've learned the importance of discipline, time management, and stepping out of my comfort zone. Sapphire has given me the confidence to lead, innovate, and make a difference.

To my juniors — participate, take initiative, and give your best. The lessons you learn here will stay with you forever. As I move forward, I carry with me Sapphire's core values — integrity, teamwork, and perseverance.

Warm Regards

Om Mishra

Perpetuated Path: world seems a place
full of dooms and boons
world seems a place
with hanging trees and gardens

the moon shined bright the sea fell on its white waves the sand on which letters are written lies the person who writes and bleeds night time, not to go out how little do they know of the ascending armour shine the one who is not whole but enough it is taught me the lesson

you dont need to be full to be functional sometimes all you need is radiant silence the most imaginable powerfull emptiness

"To use violence against a peaceful man is the greatest immorality and the biggest rot ever!" – Mahatma Gandhi

Crimes against men include physical, sexual, psychological, and economic abuse, often overlooked due to stigma and societal expectations. Men experience violence in domestic, workplace, and social settings, yet many cases remain unreported.

Traditional gender norms that associate masculinity with strength and silence discourage men from seeking help. Factors such as childhood trauma, mental health issues, and substance abuse can increase vulnerability. Cases like Atul Subhash highlight that men, too, are victims of violence and false accusations.

Addressing crimes against men requires awareness, support systems, and unbiased justice. Recognizing their suffering is not merely a gender concern—it is a moral and human obligation.
